PROFILE

Hi, I'm Muhammad Awaits, a front-end developer who creates clean, easy-to-use websites. I'm also learning how to work on the back-end, with a special focus on Agentic AI, to build smart systems that make websites better for users. I love mixing technology and creativity to make websites that are simple and enjoyable to use. I'm always looking for new ways to improve my skills and keep up with the fast-changing world of technology.
